Ivory Soap with warm water, is excellently adapted to this purpose. This soap is peculiarly efficient where it comes in contact with sores, as it is mild and pure. While cleansing thoroughly, it also soothes and heals.

Clerk Judge of the House of Delegates has had new locks placed on his desk and the filing case adjoining it. In some mysterious manner a bill became "lost" and "found" agair some time ago. As the bill is one to which the ruling faction of the House is opposed, additional mysteriousness was given the incident.

The bill in question is Griffin's bill for street car supervisor to be appointed by the Mayor and approved by the Council. Witthoefft introduced a similar bill, but with a clause providing for the approval of both the House and Council. As the charter says that the Mayor's appointments shall be approved by the Council, Griffin's bill will have to be reported or Witthoefft's amended.

He says that upon completion of the work, as there will be no wait on account of the hard filler, and if the work performed meets with the approprial of the City Inspectors, the same bend can be used on the next two blocks, and so on.

warded to Marconi, the Inventor of Wireless Telegraphy.

A cable dispatch from Stockholm, Sweden, announces the fact that the Nobel prize, the blue ribbon of the scientific world, which is given to the person having made the most important discovery or invention in the department of physical science during the year 1902, has been awarded to Guglielmo Marconi, the inventor of wireless telegraphy, by the Swedish Academy of Sciences. This honor is a signal recognition of the fact that to Marconi alone are due the material benefits we have derived from the introduction of wireless telegraphy into that to Marconi alone are due the material benefits we have derived from the introduction of wireless telegraphy into practical use.

The Nobel prizes take their name from Alfred Nobel, who died six years ago. His will provided that $40,000 cash was to be given to the man or woman who shall have rendered the greatest services to humanity. The recipient of a Nobel prize, therefore, not only ranks with the foremost men of learning of the world, but he also receives the substantial gift of money, $40,000 in cash.

Mr. Marconi is only 23 years old and is the youngest man to whom this high distinction has ever been awarded. It is a source of great gratification to him and to his friends, and also to the stockholders of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company of America, that this wonderful invention has been thus signally honored. This company has made remarkable progress in the very short space of time. The company have equipped over fifty ocean steamers with their system, and through this equipment claim to be receiving a large revenue. One steamer alone, the Lacania, is said to have carned over $800 in tolls on one single trip. The daily newspapers are published aboard these steamers, are very interesting, and must be a source of a great deal of pleasure for passengers in midocean, who are posted on daily happenings at home and can at any time communicate through wireless messages with their homes or business representatives.

F. P. Ward & Co., who are located in the Century building, St. Louis, are receiving subscriptions for a limited amount of the Marconi securities, which they claim will prove very profitable to the investor.

of the Marconi securities, which they claim will prove very profitable to the investor.

The company is under the management of responsible business men, the engineers of the company including Thomas A. Edison. Professor Pupin and Marconi. Mr. Edison recently said: "I am a thorough believer in the Marconi system. There is no obstacle, technical, scientific or mechanical, to prevent Mr. Marconi attaining a speed of 500 words per minute in transatlantic transmissions."

The company has completed arrangements with the "St. Louis Exposition" for the installation of a system here. The system has been adouted and is in use by the New York Herald, the Lloyd's world-renowned agency, and by the different naviez. The United States Government has awarded contracts for installing a system in Alaska. The possibilities of increase in the value of these securities are illustrated by the great advance in the Edison Electric Light shares and those of the Bell Telephone, which advanced some 1,000 per cent, and further as well as by the recent increase in the value of the stock of the English Marconi Company, which was put out at 53 a share, and is now selling at $22 on the London Stock Exchange, an advance of over 400 per cent. The investing public will do well to look into the opportunity offered to subscribers for this stock.

Business Man Declares Passage | Mob Attacks Nonunion Wrecking Wagon and Later Smashes Car Windows-Police Use Clubs With Vigor to Restore

> Chicago, Nov. 19 .- Despite the united efforts to-day of Mayor Harrison and the Aldermanic Mediation Committee to bring about a peaceable adjustment of the Chiengo City Railway strike there is little change in the situation to-night.

After an all-day session of the Board of Directors of the company, at which the proposal submitted by the strikers to Mayor Harrison, stating the terms on which they would settle, was considered, a counter proposal was offered by the of-ficers of the railway company and sent to the Mayor to-night. It will be considered to-morrow.

A scrious riot occurred this evening at Thirty-eighth street and Wentworth avenue. It was quelled by the vigorous work of the police. They were compelled to charge the mob and to use their clubs freely.

of the police. They were compelled to charge the mob and to use their clubs freely.

The trouble began when a wrecking wagon, manned by a nonunion crew, and guarded by six special policemen, passed Thirty-seventh street and Wentworth avenue. A crowd quickly gathered and followed it. At Thirty-eighth street 200 men surrounded the wagon, which they threatened to destroy, and then offered violence to the men.

Just then, in the nick of time, two cars carrying eighteen policemen, came up. The crowd drew back and allowed the wagon to pass.

Soon after the wagon and the car carrying the officers had left Thirty-eighth street, two cars came up from the opposite direction. As they were crossing Thirty-eighth street the mob let fly a shower of stones, demolishing the car windows and causing four passengers on the first car to flee. The mob then swarmed on the cars and had begun to beat the train crews, when the two cars of policemen and the crew of the wrecking wagon came hurrying back.

The mob, which had greatly increased by this time, was in an ugly temper and refused to move.

The police drew their revolvers and clubs and charged.

The mob used stones and curses, while the police swung their clubs with vigor. There was a warm light, which lasted about two minutes, and then the mob broke and fied in all directions, Several of those engaged in the rioting were arrested.

LILLIE B. PIERCE LOSES HER SUIT.

Jury Decides That She Was Not the Wife of Luther E. Imboden.

Lillie Belle Pierce's claim that she is the widow of Luther E. Imboden and entitled to a share of his $400,000 estate was not allowed by a jury in Judge Fisher's division of the Circuit Court. The plaintiff, it is said, will appeal the case.

The sealed verdict, returned on Wedneslay, was opened and read yesterday morning. One of the interested listeners was Mrs. John G. Parrish, Colonel Imboden's daughter and heir, whose marriage to Doctor J. G. Parrish, Jr., took place soon after her father's death. She smiled when the nature of the verdict was revealed. Noticing the crowded condition of the ourtroom, Judge Fisher ordered Sheriff Streicher to remove from the court all persons excepting attorneys and others having business there. The order was obeyed and the verdict was read, as follows:, We, the jury in the above-entitled cause, find that the petitioner was not the wife of Luther E. Imboden at the time of his death, and we further find that she is not entitled to any sum for maintenance, as prayed in her petition, W. E. KAYNOR, Foreman.

Miss Pierce was not present. Her father, George Pierce, and her attorney, Joseph Wheless, represented her.
Attorney Wheless said he would file a motion for a new trial, and, if it is not granted, that he would appeal the case.
Mrs. Parrish received the congratulations of many friends.
She inherits under her father's will the bulk of his fortune.
Miss Pierce claimed that she and Colonel imboden entered into an agreement July 27, 1888, to be to each other as man and wife. His promise to his first wife not to bring a stepmother over his daughter was the reason alleged to have been given by him for not having a marriage ceremony performed until after the marriage of his daughter.

He died suddenly some months ago, a short time before the date set for his daughter's marriage, which took place as arranged.

No mention was made in his will of Miss Pierce, who applied for a widow's immediate allowance.

While the amount is but a few hundred dollars, should she succeed in establishing her claim, she would be entitled to her share of the estate as the widow of Colonel Imboden.
